QUE TAN LE
PRIMARY EXAMINER

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The title of the invention has been changed to: "An apparatus having at least two image recording devices and its method for placing at least one component in a desired position on a substrate".

In claim 20, on line 3, "device" has been changed to "devices".

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to teach a method and device for placing at least one component in a desired position, among other features, comprising at least two image recording devices positioned on an arm and separated from each other by a pitch distance; and at least two placement devices positioned on the arm and separated by the same pitch distance, wherein the image recording devices and the placement devices are separated from one another by one pitch distance or a multiple thereof.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Art Unit: 2878

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

I) Oehlbeck et al 5,633,719 disclose an optical alignment system with dual imaging devices.
